The Illinois lads play a very strong game, both at the bat and in the field, but M'Neary's men are sanguine that they can cook their goose. The Hartford Times says: Mr. Douglas has made engagements with six strong play ers-Joseph Blong, pitcher of the St. Louis Browns; Baker, catcher of the St. Louis Browns, of '78. He is a strong batter, only twenty-three years old, weighs 162 pounds, and hight 5 feet 11 inches. Houtz is to be the first baseman. He played in that po sition in the Indianapolis nine of '77, and is rated "A 1." Joe Battin will guard third base. He played in St. Louis in '76 and '77. He is an excellent batter, thrower and thirdbase player, and was rated second in the league play of '77. Cuthbert will attend to left field.

Under an elaborate "stud-horse" head, the Cincinnati Enquirer devotes a column and a half of fine print to the thrilling and momentous narrative of the defeat of the Chicago base-ball lunatics by the Cincinnati dittos-score, nine to one. The has been overlooking Cincinnati of late. Chicago Tribune: It is claimed for Nolan by his admirers that he has more control of the ball than any other pitcher. Then it must be that he bruises up his opponents on purpose. The plan of having a stout man with an available club to go out and put a lump on him would work well with Nolan. Why should he be allowed to do what no other pitcher would do? It is a brutal and ungentlemanly trick to wound a player with Cincinnati has jumped to the front in the league-pennant race in a style which has greatly disgusted the boss of the Lake city and his factorum. The Chicago papers state that the White Stockings in the games at Cincinnati were "outplayed at every point, not alone in batting and fielding, but in steadiness and discipline." This is hard on Ferguson and his team. Captain White, of the Cincinnatis, is evidently showing marked ability as a field-manager, and the result is that the White-brother stock is at a premium. Indianapolis has pulled up in the race, and now Milwaukee occupies the rear posttion. Hence, in the east it has become "nip and tuck" as between Boston and Provi-dence, the Reds having the last quotation at a slight advance over Providence. It is a close fight, however, and the nines are very fairly matched. As before, the best manage ment will undoubtedly win, and thus Boston and Cincinnati have the best of it in this important respect. POREST CITY SLAUGHTERS THE ERIES.

Eries, played this afternoon, eight hundred persons were present. The weather was cloudy and cool-a good day for out-door sport-and the Forest Citys took advantage of it by playing a strong and steady game throughout. The same can be said of the Eries, although they were less fortunate, as the score will show. The game was very close and exciting until the eighth inning, when Captain Curry, second baseman of the Eries, while attempting to catch a ball thrown by Valentine, had the finger-nai of the third finger of his right hand taken off and the first joint bone broken, disabling him for the balance of the game. This accident seemed to demoralize the Eries, as the Forest Citys scored four runs in the eighth inning. The following is the score: Forest Citys, 5; Eries, 2. The home club is looked upon as fairly on the road to the championship prize now. The game disclosed the fact that the Milwaukees are very superior at the bat, and even superior in their pitcher. The Cincinnatis are better fielders, but could not get over the Milwaukees, tremendous batting. Two-base hits were common. Milwaukees, 12; Cincinnati, 8. Runs earned-Milwaukee 6; Cincinnati, 3. INDIANAPOLIS DEFEATS CHICAGO. CHICAGO, May 16 .- Bob Ferguson's bodyguard got another trouncing by the Indian-apolis nine to-day, and it looks now as though they are determined to return the compliment of three defeats tendered them by the Whites at Indianapolis at the opening of the season. The day was cold and raw, which accounts for the number of fielding rrors. The Hoosiers fairly outplayed the opponents at every point, and there is a gen-eral kick that Ries was set to pitch instead of Larkin. Considerable wrath was excited in the Chicago nine because Nolan hit two or three of them with the ball. Nolan claims that it was understood, and that the wind caused the accident. MONODY ON DR. J. W. ROGERS, J. Miserere mei! Sattem vos, amici mei; orate mihi! Stay, traveler, hast thou ever known
The pangs of grief, or heard a dying groan?
Hast ever watched a gentie child from birth,
And loved it more than anything on earth?
Hast seen it bloom to mannood, and retain
Sweet infancy—almost without a stain—
Without a fault, save such as unawares
Assail the best of men, despite their prayers?
Hast ever lost a friend, or seen a loved one die,
And asked, from other hearts, the tribute of a sighthen hear my story, and the fate of one
Who needs a prayer—your minstrel's hapless son.
Where suns go down, like heroes in their blood,
O'er gloomy forests, silent since the flood,
And Mississippi meets Ohlo's silvery wave,
Mark, as you pass, a lonely traveler's grave!
High crested genius sitting on its brow,
His corpse was taken from a vessel's prow,
And all unknown, 'neath Cair's's reeking sod,
They hald him on the bosom of his God.
One night of anguish on that vessel borne,
And death had claimed our darling for his own.
Visions of home to which his journey led,
Grew fainter, as he bowed his dying head;
Without a priest or friend to cheer his soul.
All night he heard the deafening waters roll.
Obeyed God's summons at the dawn of day,
The first of Mary's month—sweet month of Mary's

All night he heard the dealening waters roll.
Obeyed God's summons at the dawn of day.
The first of Mary's month—sweet month of May!
Bewalled his faults, wept bitterly and cried,
"MARY, RECEIVE ME!" blessed himself and died!
Then breathe a pitying sigh, all ye who pass,
And pray for him beneath yon waving grass.

The Memphis Long-Range Bifle Club Settles a Match for a Fine Gun-Other Matters, Etc.

Last Wednesday afternoon the boys of the Iemphis rifle club visited their range in Fort ickering in order to decide a matcu contest for a mid-range Ballard rifle. The terms of the match were as follows: Distance, two hundred yards; shooting off-hand at regulation size target; five shots each, under the rules. P. C. Rogers, 3, 4, 4, 5, 4—20; W. J. M'Dermott (two chances), 3, 5, 3, 4, 3-18, and 2, 4, 3, 3, 5-17; Arthur Merriman, 3, 4, 4, 4, 4-19; P. J. Quigley, 2, 3, 2, 4, 4-15. Rogers was declared the winner of He had, also, two chances, but only shot off one, his first score not being beaten by Mr. M'Dermott. When the match closed, the members of the club engaged in practice over the range at four hundred yards At the meeting of the club, which was had at the range, the following business was trans-Captain C. Gather them one and all,
From the private to the chief,
Come they from hovel or princely hall,
They fell for us, and for them shall fail The tears of a nation's grief Gather the corpses strewn O'er many a battle-plain; From many a grave that lies so lone, Without a name and without a stone,

Wherever it may rest— Just as they marched to the bloody fray, Just as they fell on the battle day, Bury them breast to breast. The foeman need not dread This gathering of the brave, Without sword or flag, with a soundless tread We must once more take our deathless dead Out of each lonely grave. The foeman need not frown, They are all powerless now— We gather them here and we lay them down,
